

THE S.S. PORT DOUGL&S. During last night the steamship Port Douglas, of the Anglo-.Australasian line, arrived in port from Sydney. She has on board a largo consignment of frozen noat shipped at Rockhampton and other cargo taken on board at Sydney. special interest is being taken in the arrival of this vessel, owing to the fact that shu is to load a trial shipment of frozen mutton here for the home markets. A special train is expected to arrive hero to.day from Aberdeen with 300 tons or 13,000 carcasses of frozen mutton for shipment. This being the first consignment to go forward from this district, must cause those interested in the welfare of this port, to anxiously watch the result of the test of the article on the London market. Besides this, the vessel will take about 1200 bales of wool and uther cargo. The agents for the vessel are Messra. Gibbs, Bright, and Co.