

active
about
very

3.

eamer
ent of
4 car-
quar-
if, 398
m the

ne all
en re-
gs are
that
badly
ery at
pt can
great
of the
vering

the in-
harbor

presi-
its sit-

find-
tional
matter
from
of that
g. The
prove-
e of 6s
e hand
d was
of the
lodged
m.

ter for Kirk's
algett.
Kirk's
a good
to de-

Central Police Court.

TO-DAY'S CASES.

Mr. F. W. Edwards, S.M., presided at the charge court.

Annie Richards, 32, was fined 5s for drunkenness, and £3 or six weeks for using indecent language in Castlereagh-street.

Edward Stephens, 70, charged with having no lawful means of support, was discharged with a caution.

Charlotte Cooper, 35, was fined £3 or two months for using indecent language in Hyde Park.

Water Police Court.

TO-DAY'S CASES.

Mr. F. S. Isaacs, S.M., presided in the charge division.

William A. Rattray, alias James Kitchen, was brought up by provisional warrant, charging him with larceny in the colony of New Zealand. The accused was remanded for a week.

Robert Wann, 17, no occupation, charged with behaving in a riotous manner in Bourke-street, was fined 5s, in default twenty-four hours' gaol.

Ethel Wilson, 23, on a charge of vagrancy, was sentenced to one month's imprisonment.

James Dynon, 34, laborer, charged with using indecent language in Kent-street, was fined 20s, in default seven days' gaol.

Edward Pollett, 27, laborer, was charged with attempting to obtain goods of the value of 10s and a sum of £4 10s in money from Amanda Hardwick by means of a valueless £5 note on the Provincial and Suburban Bank of Victoria, Limited, now defunct, with intent to defraud. The prosecutrix stated that on Wednesday last the accused called at her shop in Erskine-street, and selected goods to the value of 10s, and presented the note in payment. She refused to change the note, which she handed over to the police, who subsequently arrested the accused. A sentence of six months' imprisonment was imposed.

Last Week of Sale.

The last days of Hagon Brothers, Merchant Tailors, of 107 and 109 Oxford-street, Sale is drawing to a close. Until the end of the Sale a discount of 20 per cent. will be given to gentlemen ordering Suits. The 63s Suits now reduced to 50s 6d net, the 16s 6d Trowsers are 13s 3d net. The stock is all new and

Wed 2 Sep 1896 - Evening News (Sydney, NSW : 1869 - 1931)

Page 6 - Central Police Court.

Central Police Court.

TO-DAY'S CASES.

Mr. P. W. Edwards, S.M., presided at the charge court. . .-?!!?*

Annie Richards, 32, 'was fined 5s for drunkenness,' and £3 or six weeks for using indecent language da Castlereagh-street

Ed-ward Stephens,- 70, charged with ibaving no lawful means' of support, was discharged with a caution. -

Charlotte Cooper, 35, was fined £3 or two months lor using indecent language in Hyde Park.

AS A I
And will be pleased to tra
usual liberal terms.
8 CASTLEBEAGH-S'
NO CONNECTION with

THE CROW STUDIO

M

At Edwards

