GORDON-BODDY WEDDING

A wedding was celebrated on Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. Edward Reavely, when Miss Lily M. Gordon, stepdaughter, was united in the bonds of matrimony to Mr. Alfred C. Boddy, oldest son of Mr. S. A. Boddy, of Newcastle. The Rev. Seth Jones officiated. The bride was attired in a travelling costume of blue cloth, and wore a French hat of cream felt and ostrich plumes, a diamond ring, and carried a shower bouquet, gifts of the bridegroom. The bridesmaids were Misses Ethel Boddy and S. Reavely, to whom the bridegroom's gifts were gold mismatched brooches. Mr. J. Thomas acted as best man, and E. Reavely, jun., as groomsman. At the wedding breakfast the Rev. S. Jones proposed the health of the newly-married couple, which was responded to by Mr. A. Boddy. Among the numerous presents received was a dinner service and silver cruet from the teachers and friends of the Baptist Tabernacle Sunday School (where the bridegroom acted as secretary, and the bride as teacher for several years), also a handsome clock from Mrs. D. T. Allen. The remainder of the evening was spent pleasantly in harmony, recitations, games, &c.
