In Memoriam.

CLARKE.—In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Albert William Howman Clarke, who died June 28th, 1902, at Newcastle; aged 21 years.

We cannot, Lord, Thy purpose see,
But all is well that's done by Thee.

Inserted by his loving mother, B. Clarke, and family. 539

CLARKE.—In loving memory of Albert, who departed this life 28th June, 1902; aged 21 years.

I cannot clasp your hand, dear Albert,
Your face I cannot see;
But let this little token tell,
My memory clings to thee.
Out in the lonely churchyard,
Beneath the lonely sod;
My dearest friend is sleeping there,
I know he is with God.

Inserted by his loving friend, Ernest R. Fowler. 454

CLARKE.—In loving memory of our dear friend, Albert William Clarke, who departed this life June 28th, 1902.

As we looked upon your face, dear friend,
Sad tears bedimmed our eyes;
For, oh, it was so hard to think
You could not say good-bye.

Inserted by his loving friends, Mr. and Mrs. B. Robson and Miss L. Williamson, Adamstown. 478

CLARKE.—In loving memory of Albert W. B. Clarke, who died at Cambrian Hall, June 28th, 1902; aged 21 years.

Inserted by his loving friend, W.H. 472

LYON.—In affectionate remembrance of my dear wife and mother, Elizabeth Ann Lyon, who died on the 27th of June, 1902, at the Newcastle Hospital; aged 45 years.

One less at home!
The charmed circle broken—a dear face,
Missed day by day from its accustomed place;
But cleansed, and saved, and perfected by grace—

One more in Heaven!

One less on earth,
Its pain, its sorrow, and its toll to share;
One less the pilgrim's daily cross to bear;
One more the crown of ransomed sinners to wear—

At home in Heaven!

Inserted by her affectionate husband and daughter, John Lyon and Esther Lundy, Sandhills. 489

PRICE.—In sad and loving memory of our hills. 489

PRICE.—In sad and loving memory of our dearly beloved son and brother, John Thomas, who died at Pittsburg, June 28th, 1901; aged 30 years.

May his soul rest in peace.

Inserted by his loving father and mother, sisters and brothers, Charles and Ellen Price and family, Pittsburg. 504

WILLIAMS.—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear parents, who died April 14th, 1890; and June the 26th, 1901.—At rest.

Inserted by their loving daughters and son-in-law, Emma and Albert Marchant, and Martha Williams. 493

WILLIAMS.—In memory of our dear brother-in-law, Lewis Williams, who departed this life June 26th, 1901. Also our dear sister, Janet, wife of the above, who died April 14, 1899.

Dead, but not forgotten.
Safe in the arms of Jesus.

Inserted by their loving sisters, Ellen and Victoria Rensch. 469

WALTON.—In loving remembrance of our darling son, Edward John Walton, who died at the Newcastle Hospital through shock caused by scalds accidentally received at his grandparents' residence, Stockton, on June 27th, 1901; aged 3 years and 6 months.

Two weary years have passed away,
How dreary the time has sped;
Since we in bitter anguish knelt
Beside our darling's bed.

We knew that he was dying,
Yet could not bid him stay;
For Christ our Lord to him appeared,
And beckoned him away.

Inserted by his loving parents, Edward and Mary Ann Walton, West Wallsend. 579

WALTON.—In loving remembrance of our darling grandson, Edward John Walton, who died at the Newcastle Hospital through shock caused by scalds accidentally received at his grandparents' residence, Stockton, on June 27th, 1901; aged 3 years and 6 months.

Thy hands are closed upon thy breast,
We kissed thy lovely brow;
And in our aching hearts we know,
We have no grandson now.

Inserted by his loving grandparents, John and Mary Evans, Stockton. 575
