

WARATAH.

ACCIDENT.—On Sunday last, as Mr. and Mrs George Bell and Mr. E. Reavely were driving down Turton Road, they had a narrow escape from serious injury. When near Thompson's Hotel the wipers became loose, and the horse at once bolted, keeping straight on until near Marchant's Hotel, where the vehicle capsized, throwing the whole of the occupants out on the street. They, however, strange to say, escaped without much injury beside a severe shaking.
